Inside Changdeokgung Palace, there is the most beautiful garden called Biwon. Biwon is a traditional Korean garden, and as a royal garden where kings enjoyed a stroll, it is a popular tourist destination throughout the four seasons due to its beautiful scenery.

It is said that the round island in the middle of the pond at Buyongji Pond, the representative garden pond of Biwon, means the universe and the sky, and the square pond frame means the land.

In particular, Biwon is a famous place used in the KBS drama 'Dae Jang Geum', which was filmed in Changdeok Palace, and is loved by Koreans a lot.
